Average Program Tuition/Cost per credit hour:

Average Cost for Program Completion:

Bachelor's Degree:	$12,432*	plus any applicable fees
Associate's Degree:	$6,216	plus any applicable fees

*Average time to completion for an undergrad student is calculated at 48 months or 4 years. It is expected the average student will complete 10 courses per year with 40 courses required to earn a Bachelor's degree. This assumes no transfer credit was applied. Where transfer credit is accepted, the time to completion would be reduced by the amount of transfer credit thus reducing the overall program cost.

Average time to completion for an Associate's degree is calculated at 24 months or 2 years. It is expected the average student will complete 10 courses per year with 20 courses required to earn an Associate's degree. This assumes no transfer credit was applied. Where transfer credit is accepted, the time to completion would be reduced by the amount of transfer credit thus reducing the overall program cost.

Master's Degree:	$11,976*	plus any applicable fees
------------------	-----------	--------------------------

*Average time to completion for a graduate student is calculated at 24 months or 2 years. It is expected the average graduate student will complete 6 courses per year with 12 courses required to earn a Master's degree. This assumes no transfer credit was applied. Where transfer credit is accepted, the time to completion would be reduced by the amount of transfer credit thus reducing the overall program cost.

Note: There is an application fee of $100 for all students and $200 registration fee for international students.
